If you're looking to get into the festive spirit in the build up to Christmas, where better than heading off to beautiful Belgium? Enjoy the land of chocolate, beer and stunning cities as we journey to Ghent, Bruges & Lille.

Day 1: Following the Channel crossing to Dunkirk we make our way to Mouscron where we stay for the next four nights.

Day 2: Our included excursion takes us to the charming historical city of Ghent. Here, over 100 festive stalls and chalets are spread out from Sint-Baafsplein in areas such as the Botermarkt, and Klein Turkije, to the end of the Korenmarkt. Wander among the stalls selling snacks and drinks, decorative and craft items, taking in the festive sights and why not sample a warming gluhwein? Ghent manages to combine medieval architectural wealth and idyllic charm within its city walls. From St. Michael's bridge there is a wonderful view of the skyline of Ghent, which includes the three impressive towers of St. Nicholas' Church and Sint Baafs Cathedral with its elaborate stone and marble naves.

Day 3: Today we head to the charming medieval city of Bruges on our included excursion. Bruges boasts quite a unique magic at this time of year, with its stunning buildings including the Gothic clock, town halls and medieval belfry that dominate the main square which will be beautifully illuminated and dressed in festive garlands. You will have free time to explore the Christmas Markets, which are magnificently brought to life, offering an assortment of hand-made gifts, decorations, and food, including a tempting array of Belgian chocolates made especially for Christmas.

Day 4: This morning we discover the magical Christmas Market in Lille, one of the largest in Northern Europe. In the Grand Place you'll find a 50-metre-high Big Wheel which offers
