

A Trip To Remember Them, Normandy

Why not join us and experience the beaches, battlegrounds, cemeteries and museums of the D-Day invasion. Understand why the battles were fought, and how. See the memorials and understand the extraordinary deeds and astonishing sacrifices which were made.

Day 1: We travel to Portsmouth for the afternoon crossing to Caen and on to our hotel for the next 4 nights. Due to the late evening arrival at hotel, there is NO evening meal included, so it is recommended to make use of the restaurants on board the ferry.

Days 2 to 4: Full Day Step-on Guide of British Landing Beaches. Today we visit Pegasus Bridge museum, The Atlantic Wall Museum, Courseulles, The Gold Beach museum & the Arromanches - musée du Débarquement.

• After breakfast we travel to Bayeux to visit the Bayeux Tapestry. We then have some free time in Bayeux to have some lunch and to explore before we journey to the new British Normandy Memorial, the memorial records the names of the 22,442 servicemen and women under British command who fell on D-Day and during the Battle of Normandy in the summer of 1944. This includes people from more than 30 different countries. Inscribed in stone, their names have never, until now, been brought together. The site also includes a French Memorial, dedicated to the memory of French civilians who died during this time.

• Full day Step-on Guide of American
