

Llandudno & The Welsh Highland Railway

5 Days
£650

Join us on this new break to Llandudno, staying at one of our favourites hotels.

Day 1: Arrive at the Tynedale Hotel in Llandudno to settle in and enjoy a welcome dinner.

Day 2: A day at leisure to relax or explore Llandudno, with its varied shops, trams and promenade.

Day 3: The Snowdonia Star is one of two premier services travelling coast to coast on a full day out along the entire Welsh Highland Railway. This is a splendid 2 hour, 25-mile journey, each way through a stunning variety of Eryri's (Snowdonia's) beautiful scenery. Your train steams through farmland and forest, crossing the foothills of Yr Wyddfa before descending a steep hillside to pass the village of Beddgelert, through the magnificent Aberglaslyn Pass and across the Traeth Mawr (Great Estuary) to reach Porthmadog. As you cross the harbour bridge into the station, spare a thought for the moment in early 2009 when the final piece of track was laid and fitted with 'Golden Bolts' to connect the link with the Ffestiniog Railway. On arrival at Porthmadog, there is time to explore the town or enjoy a meal and a drink on the terrace of Spooner's café-bar at the station during the approximately 1 hour 45-minute break before the train heads back to Caernarfon. The place where both railways meet, lunchtime is a great time for watching trains coming and going.

Day 4: After breakfast, we travel to the historic city of Chester. You'll have ample free time to explore this fascinating city at your leisure. Discover the well-preserved Roman walls, walk along the famous Rows with their unique two-
